Call to Reconciliation

Pastor: The God who created us and who knows us better than we know ourselves invites us to look at ourselves and be honest about who we have become. Let us confess the state of our lives to God and before one another.

Reconciliation Prayer

All: We confess to you, O loving Creator God, that we have not lived in the truth that Jesus told us.

- We have not chosen your reign before our selfish concerns.
- We have not become servants of others.
- We have not sought to lose our lives in you but rather we have clung to the trappings of mortal existence.
- We have called Jesus our Lord but we have placed all manner of people and things ahead of our service to his reign of love and justice.

Forgive us, and by the power of your Holy Spirit so fill us with your love and power that we will resist the call of earthly things and seek instead that which is eternal. Amen.
